

Dixie Quickstep

Bruce & Emmett

The sheet music for "Dixie Quickstep" is written for Snare and Bass in 2/4 time. It consists of several systems of music with various rhythmic patterns and section markers.

Section A: The first system starts with a box labeled 'A'. It features a 7-measure phrase with a snare drum pattern of eighth notes and a bass line of quarter notes. This is followed by another 7-measure phrase with a similar pattern. The system concludes with a 15-measure phrase.

Section B: The second system begins with a 15-measure phrase, followed by a 7-measure phrase. A box labeled 'B' marks the start of a 7-measure phrase with a different snare pattern. This is followed by another 7-measure phrase.

Section C: The third system contains two 11-measure phrases. The fourth system contains two 11-measure phrases, followed by a 7-measure phrase, and then another 11-measure phrase. A box labeled 'C' marks the start of a 7-measure phrase with a snare drum pattern of eighth notes and a bass line of quarter notes. This is followed by a 7-measure phrase with a snare drum pattern of eighth notes and a bass line of quarter notes. The system concludes with a 7-measure phrase.

The music is characterized by its rhythmic complexity, with many eighth and sixteenth notes, and a variety of drum patterns. The bass line is primarily composed of quarter notes, often with a steady eighth-note accompaniment.
